PETITION FOR WRIT OF

HABEAS CORPUS

17
18 TO THE JUDGES OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT FOR THE SOUTHERN 19 DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA, CENTRAL DIVISION:

20 Dorothy Rosenblum Healey, the petitioner above named 21 hereby petitions this honorable Court for a writ of habeas corpus 22 directing the respondent James J. Boyle, United States Marshal
23 for the Southern District of California, in whose custody peti-24 tioner is now restrained of her liberty, to produce the body of 25 your petitioner, Dorothy Rosenblum Healey before this Court at 26 a time and place specified and then and there to show cause why 27 petitioner should not be released from the custody of the re-28 spondent upon bail in such reasonable sum as may be determined 29 by this Court; and in support thereof, your petitioner alleges 30 as follows:

31 I.

32 On July 26, 1951, your petitioner was arrested at her home

1 in the city of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, State of Calif-
2 ornia, upon a warrant issued July 25, 1951 by Howard V. Calverley, 3 United States Commissioner in the Southern District of California, 4 pursuant to a complaint charging your petitioner and one William 5 Schneiderman with conspiracy to commit offenses against the United 6 States prohibited by Section 2 of the Smith Act, 54 Stat. 671.

7 II.

8 Following petitioner's arrest and on July 26, 1951, your 9 petitioner was arraigned before said United States Commissioner and 10 by said Commissioner was ordered to be held in the custody of the 11 respondent herein upon bail fixed by said Commissioner in the sum 12 of $75,000 and by virtue of such order your petitioner was confined 13 in the County Jail of the County of Los Angeles in the custody of 14 said respondent on said day and where petitioner has continuously 15 remained until the present time.

16 III.

17 Thereafter and on or about July 27, 1951, your petitioner
18 filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus in this Court praying 19 that the writ issue and that your petitioner be released from the 20 custody of the respondent upon reasonable bail in order that peti-21 tioner might properly prepare petitioner's defense and because the 22 fixing of excessive bail by the United States Commissioner consti-23 tuted a violation of the rights guaranteed to him by the Consti-24 tution of the United States.

25 IV.

26 An order to show cause why the said petition for writ of 27 habeas corpus should not be granted was signed by Honorable Leon 28 R. Yankwich, a judge of this Court on July 27, 1951 and made re-29 turnable before said Court on July 31, 1951 at 10 A.M.

30 V.

31 Upon information and belief, the United States Attorney 32 summoned the Grand Jury to convene on July 31, 1951 at 9 A.M. and

1 in the space of about fifteen minutes, the said Grand Jury re-2 turned the indictment herein charging your petitioner together 3 with eleven other named defendants with conspiracy to violate 4 Section 2 of the Smith Act, 54 Stat. 671.

5 VI.

6 That on July 31, 1951 when your petitioner's petition for 7 writ of habeas corpus came on for hearing, the Court was informed 8 by the United States Attorney that an indictment had been returned 9 and that for the aforesaid reason, the hearing on the petition for 10 writ of habeas corpus before the Court had become moot, and that 11 thereupon the Court discharged the order to show cause why the 12 petition for writ of habeas corpus should not be granted.

13 VII.

14 Thereupon, and on the same day, your petitioner was taken be-15 fore the Honorable James M. Carter, a judge of this Court before 16 whom the indictment was returned and the said Court then announced 17 that it was fixing bail in an amount recommended by the Grand Jury.
18 Upon information and belief, the true bill returned against the 19 defendants including your petitioner contained no recommendation 20 by the Grand Jury relative to bail. Upon information and belief, 21 the names of the defendants were written on a copy of the indict-22 ment with the notation of $75,000 for all defendants except the 23 defendant, William Schneiderman, where the notation was $100,000, 24 and that these writings were unsigned.

25 VIII.

26 Thereafter, and on August 6, 1951, your petitioner moved in 27 the United States District Court for the Southern District of 28 California, Central Division, to fix bail in a reasonable sum or 29 if bail had been fixed in the sum of $75,000 as aforesaid, then 30 for a reduction of this excessive bail to a reasonable amount.

31 IX.

32 On August 6, 1951, the aforesaid motion to fix or reduce bail

1 came on for argument before the Honorable James M. Carter, United 2 States Judge for the Southern District of California, Central Divi-3 sion.

4 X.

5 Before the commencement of the argument of the motion to fix 6 or reduce bail your petitioner along with the other defendants 7 named in the indictment herein except William Schneiderman filed 8 with the said Court an affidavit of personal bias and prejudice and 9 requested the said Court to disqualify itself and to transfer the 10 hearing on bail to another judge of the District Court pursuant to 11 the provisions of 28 U.S. C.A. section 144; that said Judge de-12 clined to disqualify himself and held the affidavit of personal 13 bias and prejudice legally insufficient on August 7, 1951.

14 XI.

15 That thereupon, and at the request of counsel for one of the 16 defendants herein, Philip Marshall Connelly, the said Judge James 17 M. Carter withheld his ruling on the said Connelly's motion to fix 18 or reduce bail until an application could be made to the United 19 States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit for a ruling on the 20 sufficiency of the aforesaid affidavit of bias and prejudice.

21 XII.

22 That thereafter, the motion to fix or reduce bail on your 23 petitioner's behalf was argued before the said Judge and on August 24 8, 1951 your petitioner's bail was fixed at the sum of $50,000.

25 XIII.

26 Thereafter, on August 13, 1951, your petitioner filed a peti-
27 tion for writ of habeas corpus in this Court praying that the writ 28 issue and that petitioner be released from the custody of the res-29 pondent upon reasonable bail, and on the said day the writ was 30 issued by the Honorable William C. Mathes, a Judge of this Court 31 and made returnable before said Judge on August 15, 1951.

1 XIV.

2 On August 15, 1951 the said writ came on for hearing before
3 the said Judge William C. Mathes, and after hearing, and by order 4 dated August 17, 1951, the said petition was dismissed and the writ 5 discharged.

6 XV.

7 On August 18, 1951, your petitioner filed a notice of appeal 8 to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit from 9 the aforesaid order discharging the writ of habeas corpus.

10 XVI.

11 Thereafter, and on August 24, 1951, the United States Court 12 of Appeals rendered its decision on the application of the de-13 fendant herein, Philip Marshall Connelly, to disqualify the afore-14 said Judge James M. Carter, and the said Court did hold that the 15 aforesaid affidavit of bias and prejudice was legally sufficient 16 and ordered the said Judge to proceed no further respecting the 17 said Connelly's bail proceedings or in connection with the said 18 Connelly's prosecution under the indictment.

19 XVII.

20 In view of the decision of the Court of Appeals, and because 21 of the doubt created thereby as to whether the said Judge James M.
22 Carter had the power or jurisdiction originally to fix or reduce 23 bail for petitioner or the other petitioners herein, after the 24 aforesaid joint affidavit of bias and prejudice was filed, the 25 petitioner decided to withdraw the aforesaid appeal.

26 XVIII.

27 On August 27, 1951, the United States Attorney for the 28 Southern District of California, counsel for the respondent, and 29 counsel for the petitioner stipulated in writing to dismiss the 30 aforesaid appeal and said stipulation was filed with the clerk of 31 the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in 32 accordance with Rule 16 of the said Court.

1 XIX.

2 Thereafter, and on August 29, 1951, the petitioner together
3 with the other defendants were brought before the said James M.
4 Carter who formally disqualified himself, and thereupon the pro-
5 ceedings were assigned by the presiding Judge of the said District 6 Court to the aforesaid Judge William C. Mathes.

7 XX.

8 On August 29 and 30, 1951, argument on motions to fix or re-9 duce bail were made before the said Judge William C. Mathes and 10 the said Judge on August 30, 1951 fixed bail for petitioner in the 11 sum of $50,000. At the same time, the said Judge set September 18, 12 1951 as the time for filing motions and September 26 as the time 13 for argument of said motions; and fixed September 10, 1951 as the 14 day for the appearance of counsel to determine the date of trial 15 which the said Judge indicated would be October 30, 1951 unless 16 strong reason was shown to the contrary.

17 XXI.

18 Your petitioner is wholly unable to furnish bail in the sum 19 of $50,000 and by virtue thereof all the proceedings heretofore 20 had herein which have confined your petitioner in the County Jail 21 and unlawfully deprived petitioner of liberty and abridged the 22 rights guaranteed petitioner by the Fifth and Eighth Amendments to 23 the Constitution of the United States. Exhibits A and B annexed 24 hereto and made a part hereof clearly reveal that petitioner has 25 been denied equal justice by the action of the Court in fixing bail 26 at the grossly excessive sum of $50,000.

27 XXII.

28 Petitioner is advised by Counsel that under the Constitution, 29 petitioner is entitled to bail as a matter of right and that the 30 requirement of excessive bail is a denial of bail. Your petition-31 er is entitled to freely prepare a defense, to consult with 32 counsel and witnesses, and all of this is denied by the unlawful 33 confinement herein.

XXIII.

Petitioner was born in Denver, Colorado, on September 22, 1914. From 1914 to 1921 she lived in Denver, Colorado.

In 1921, she moved to California, and from that time until 1932 she lived on and off in Los Angeles, Oakland and Berkeley, California; from 1932 to 1940 she lived in Los Angeles, California; from 1940 to 1943 she lived in San Francisco, California; from 1943 to date she has lived in Los Angeles.

XXIV.

Petitioner's present address is 1733 1/2 West 84th Street, Los Angeles, California, in a home which she owns in joint tenancy with her mother.

XXV.

Prior to 1937, petitioner worked as a waitress, cannery worker, and did office work; from 1937 to 1939, she was a representative of the United Cannery, Agricultural, Packing and Allied Workers of America, and during this period petitioner was International Vice-President and International Representative for Southern California; in 1939, she worked as an organizer for Labor's Non-Partisan League; from 1940 to 1943, petitioner had a Civil Service job with the State of California, to-wit, the job of Deputy Labor Commissioner, working out of San Francisco. Petitioner took maternity leave from that job and subsequently resigned. In 1943 she became International Organizer of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union, and held that job until 1945. In 1944 petitioner was appointed as an alternate member of the War Labor Board in Los Angeles.

XXVI.

Petitioner is married to Philip Connelly, a named defendant herein; she has a son by a former marriage, Richard Earle Healey, aged eight. Also living in Los Angeles are her mother, aged sixty-six and one brother. Petitioner also has two sisters living in Berkeley, California.

XXVII.

Petitioner has previously been arrested and released on her own recognizance and on bail, and in each instance, she has appeared whenever required to do so in the then pending proceedings. Specifically, in 1934, she was arrested and charged with unlawful assembly and certain other charges which she does not recall, all of which charges arose out of picketing and similar activity arising out of a labor dispute. Petitioner was out on bail from January to March and at all times she appeared in the proceedings as required and at the conclusion of the proceedings her bail was exonerated. In 1949, she was tried in the Court herein for civil and criminal contempt for failing to respond to questions before the Grand Jury. During these proceedings before the District Court, to the best of her recollection where an oral presentment had been lodged against her, no bail was required from her and although the matter was continued on a number of occasions when petitioner was required to appear in the hearing before the Court, she was in attendance. When petitioner was convicted of contempt and sentenced to imprisonment for a period of eighteen months, she was released on bail pending appeal in the sum of $500. At all times during these proceedings, petitioner responded to all Court orders requiring her appearance. These proceedings at one stage or another lasted for more than a year. On appeal her conviction was reversed and bail was exonerated.

XXVIII.

Petitioner suffers from headaches which she usually gets every few days, and which are usually quite severe for a period of twenty-four hours; these headaches have been diagnosed as a possible migraine condition. Petitioner has a bad gum condition with constant inflammation which requires attention.

Although petitioner has always been employed, she has always cared for her son who is now eight years old; her son is accustomed to her presence at mealtimes both in the evenings and in the morning, and to her attention during the early evening hours. Her absence from her son will deprive him of petitioner's care and will create serious problems with respect to his physical and mental welfare.

XXX.

Over a long period of time, petitioner has been periodically followed and trailed by FBI agents. The last occasion began on Tuesday, July 24, at 5 P.M., when she began to be followed by a black Pontiac, bearing the license number #1N 140. She was followed so openly that the parking attendant near her office, barber shop operators, cigar stand attendant, remarked that her "boy friends" were back again. Petitioner was followed all day Wednesday, July 25, everywhere she went, by reason of these facts and by reason of the wide publicity given over a long period of time by the United States Department of Justice to its intention to prosecute persons alleged to be leading officers of the Communist Party, and because of constant publicity over a long period of time, alleging that petitioner is a leading official of the Communist Party of Los Angeles, she has been expecting, over a long period of time, that she would be arrested and charged with violation of the Smith Act. At all times it has been her intention, in the event of such charge and such arrest, to defend herself in court and to do everything possible to have the proceedings dismissed or to secure a Not Guilty verdict. In contemplation of the possibility of such prosecution, she has consulted various counsel (not her counsel appearing herein) for the purpose of ascertaining whether and upon what terms they would represent her in the event of such arrest.

XXXI.

Petitioner is employed at a salary of $50.00 per week, and has no other source of income except the income of her husband, who as set forth above, is a named defendant herein, also in custody. Aside from her interest in the home, as set forth above, petitioner owns no realty and has no other kinds of assets of any kind, except an automobile.

XXXII.

Petitioner hereby states and represents to this Court that she intends in good faith to remain and that she will remain within the jurisdiction of this Court at all times throughout the prosecution of the proceedings under the indictment and that she does not intend to and will not at any time during such proceedings leave the jurisdiction of this Court without the approval of the Court. Petitioner believes that she is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment and she intends to vigorously prosecute her defense. Petitioner believes that upon the trial of this indictment herein, she will be entitled to a verdict of not guilty and that a conviction upon the allegations thereof would deprive her of liberties secured to her by the Constitution of the United States.

2 In order to properly prepare petitioner's defense with the 3 aid of counsel, it is vital that petitioner be released on reason-4 able bail. An order was entered by the aforesaid Judge William C.
5 Mathes on August 31, 1951 directing the conditions under which 6 petitioner and the co-defendants could prepare for trial. A copy
7 of the aforesaid Order is annexed hereto and marked Exhibit "C." 8 The provisions made in the said Order for the conditions under 9 which the petitioner and the co-defendants may prepare for trial 10 remain inadequate, and under the circumstances hereinafter set 11 forth will place onerous burdens upon the petitioner in the prep-12 aration of the defense to the charges contained in the indictment.
13 The petitioner avers that unless petitioner is released on reason-14 able bail, petitioner will be deprived of a fair trial without due 15 process of law.

X X X / /

17 Under the aforesaid Order the petitioner is permitted to work
18 with counsel on the preparation of the case on Mondays through 19 Fridays only between the hours of 9 A.M. and 5 P.M. These limita-20 tions upon the hours of work disregard the scope and nature of the 21 preparation which must be made in the case herein and which, if a 22 proper defense is to be made, requires fulltime preparation, es-23 pecially in the evenings and on weekends. In addition, the peti-24 tioner must prepare, under the said Order, with co-defendants and 25 counsel in a room in the Federal Building or at such place as the 26 respondent shall select; while working in said designated room, 27 petitioner is required to bring in meals at petitioner's own ex-28 pense; bring in books, documents and other materials without cen-29 sorship as to content only; and allowed to consult with witnesses 30 provided that each witness shall furnish to respondent his name, 31 address, crime record, if any, and general occupation.

NO. 1742-4

RETURN TO WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

17 I, JAMES J. BOYLE, United States Marshal for the Southern District of 18 California, respondent herein, on behalf of myself and each and all of my agent 19 and deputies, respectfully make the following return and answer to this Honorable 20 Court, to the writ of habeas corpus issued pursuant to the petition for writ of 21 habeas corpus in the above case:

22 I

23 That the petitioner, Dorothy Assembly Realty, is not unlawfully 24 imprisoned or restrained of her liberty, and her imprisonment and detention 25 are not illegal, arbitrary or a denial of rights secured to her by the Constitu-26 tion of the United States, but said petitioner is in my custody under proper and 27 lawful authority.

28 II

29 That said petitioner was taken into custody on July 26, 1951, in the 30 City of Los Angeles, State of California, by Special Agents of the Federal 31 Bureau of Investigation, upon a warrant issued on July 25, 1951, by Howard V.
32 Calverley, United States Commissioner for the Southern District of California,

1 pursuant to a verified complaint charging said petitioner and one William 2 Schneiderman with conspiracy to commit offenses against the United States pro-
3 hibited by Section 2 of the Smith Act, 54 Stat. 671, 18 U.S.C. (1946 Ed.) 10, 4 and 18 U.S.C. (1948 Ed.) 2385.

5 III

6 That following said petitioner's arrest was taken without delay on July 7 26, 1951, before the nearest United States Commissioner, namely, Honorable 8 Howard V. Calverley, at Los Angeles, California, who then and there arraigned 9 said petitioner and continued the matter to August 9, 1951 at 10:00 a.m. for 10 preliminary examination and set bail in the amount of $75,000 pending said pre-11 liminary examination, and in default thereof ordered said petitioner committed 12 to the custody of this respondent.

13 IV

14 The grand jury for the Southern District of California, in and for the 15 Central Division, met on the 27th, 30th, and 31st days of July, 1951, and, after 16 hearing the evidence presented, did on the 31st day of July, 1951, return an in-17 dictment against the petitioner herein and eleven other named defendants, a cer-18 tified copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A". That said grand jury re-19 commended bail in the amount of $75,000 for the petitioner herein and, on the 20 return of the indictment, said amount of bail was approved by Judge James M.
21 Carter, before whom the said indictment was returned.

23 On the 2nd day of August, 1951, the petitioner herein was arraigned on 24 said indictment and, at the request of petitioner herein, the plea on said 25 indictment was continued until the 13th day of August, 1951. On the 13th day 26 of August, 1951, at the petitioner's request, the plea on said indictment was 27 again continued until the 20th day of August, 1951. On the 16th day of August, 28 1951, on petitioner's request, the order setting said matter for plea on 29 August 20, 1951, was vacated and the plea on said indictment was again con-30 tinued until the 22nd day of August, 1951. On August 22, 1951, the plea was 31 continued at petitioner's request to August 29, 1951, and on August 29, 1951, 32 the petitioner herein entered a plea of not guilty before the Honorable Wm. C.
33 Mathes, to whose court the cause was transferred for all further proceedings.

VI

Following the proceedings set forth in paragraphs ~~VIII~~ ~~IX~~ to of the petition herein and after the opinion by the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in the case of Philip Marshall Connelly, petitioner, v. The United States District Court in and for the Southern District of California Central Division, and Honorable James M. Carter, Judge thereof, respondents (No.13053, decided August 24,1951), was rendered, Judge James M. Carter, did, on the 29th day of August,1951, disqualify himself as to both Philip Marshall Connelly and the petitioner herein, and transferred all proceedings in said case of United States v. Schneiderman, et al., to Judge Paul J. McCormick, Presiding Judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of California. Judge Paul J. McCormick on the same date assigned said case to Judge Wm. C. Mathes for all further proceedings. Thereafter, on the 29th day of August,1951, a motion was made before the Honorable Wm. C. Mathes to reduce the bail of the petitioner herein, and following a full hearing lasting two days an order was made on August 30,1951, reducing the amount of bail set on said indictment to the sum of $50,000. That petitioner has not given such bail and is detained by respondent pursuant to the proceedings aforesaid; that in said hearings before Judges Wm. C. Mathes and ~~Louis E. Goodman~~ the same matters were raised as are raised in the said petition, and said matters have already been litigated.

That the order of said Judge William C. Mathes fixing bail in the amount of $50,000 does not, under the circumstances herein involved, constitute an excessive requirement of bail in accordance with the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and does not amount to a violation of said Amendment or the Fifth Amendment thereto, and does not show any abuse of discretion by said Judge William C. Mathes.

VIII

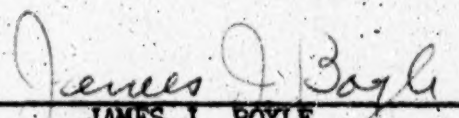

That named in the indictment above-mentioned, as unindicted co-conspirators with the petitioner herein, are: Robert C. Thompson, Henry Winston, Gilbert Green, and Gus Hall. That the said last-named individuals were defendants

1 in the case of United States v. Dennis, et al., who were convicted in the 2 Southern District of New York on a violation of the same Act under which the 3 above-mentioned indictment was returned, and which conviction was, on June 4, 4 1951, affirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States. That, thereafter, 5 said last-named persons failed to appear and surrender to serve the sentence 6 theretofore imposed and on July 2, 1951, bench warrants were ordered issued by 7 the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York for said 8 persons, and on July 3, 1951, the bonds theretofore posted (referred to in the 9 petition herein) by said persons were ordered forfeited by that court. The 10 nature of the offense charged in the indictment herein is the incitement of 11 rebellion looking to the overthrow of the government of the United States by 12 force and violence and disloyalty to the United States. Under the facts and 13 circumstances here involved the defendants in said indictment, including the 14 petitioner herein, lack the usual incentive of respect to said government.
15 Your respondent alleges that the petitioner herein is a poor security risk 16 and that unless a substantial bail is required of said petitioner, said 17 petitioner would not appear to answer the charges contained in the indictment 18 herein.

19 IX

20 That in none of the cases mentioned in EXHIBITS "A" and "B" of the peti-21 tion herein, save and except the two New York cases of United States v. Dennis 22 and United States v. Flynn, is the charge the same as is contained in the indict-23 ment herein, all of said cases being routine cases involving violations of 24 various federal statutes.

25 WHEREFORE, the respondent, James J. Boyle, United States Marshal for the 26 Southern District of California, having made due and full answer to the writ of 27 habeas corpus heretofore issued herein, pursuant to the petition for writ of 28 habeas corpus, respectfully prays that the petition for writ of habeas corpus 29 be dismissed and that the petitioner, Dorothy Rosenblum Healey, be remanded to re-30 spondent's custody to be dealt with according to the laws of the United States 31 of America.

25
26 MEMORANDUM OPINION

27
28 The above petitions for writs of habeas corpus were con-29 solidated for hearing and the sole question for this court to de-30 termine in each matter is whether the bail of $50,000 is excessive, 31 and by reason thereof petitioners are unlawfully deprived of their 32 liberty contrary to the provisions of the Eighth Amendment to the 1 Constitution of the United States.

2 It appears from the records of this court and the tran-3 script of various proceedings that the question of bail as to some 4 of the petitioners has been before two district judges of this dis-
5 trict, one in San Francisco (Judge Goodman), and one in New York 6 (Judge Dimock). (See Cr. file No. 21883 of this district).

7 Now through these proceedings petitioners seek to have 8 me ignore the record, absolutely strike from my mind the separate 9 rulings by four district judges, and indirectly hold that the bail 10 fixed is excessive and each of said judges has abused the dis-11 cretion vested in him.

12 Counsel for petitioners claim that bail in excess of 13 $5,000 would be prohibitive, therefore, the court should fix bail 14 in that amount. In other words, petitioners contend that bail 15 should be fixed in accordance with their ability to furnish bail.
16 To follow their argument to a natural conclusion, if they could 17 raise bail in an amount not in excess of $10, the bail should be 18 so fixed. If such a rule were adopted all prisoners now waiting 19 for trial on bailable offenses would be entitled to have bail 20 fixed in accordance with their respective abilities.

21 As stated in U. S. ex rel. Rubinstein v. Mulcahy etc., 22 155 F. (2d) 1002: "The purpose of bail before trial is to insure 23 the presence of the accused when required without the hardship of 24 incarceration before guilt has been proved and while the presump-25 tion of innocence is to be given effect." (See also Rule 46(c) 26 F.R.C.P.).

27 How much should the bail of petitioners be to meet the 28 requirements of the foregoing quotation? The Grand Jury that heard 29 the evidence recommended $75,000. How can I say that all who have 30 exercised their discretion are wrong because I may or may not agree 31 with them?

32 When a person is released on bail before trial such per-

1 son is a calculated risk and the amount of bail resolves itself 2 into a matter of judgment. Sometimes the courts are wrong but 3 fortunately the defendants usually appear. The offenses charged 4 are very serious and the court realizes as a matter of common 5 knowledge that those charged with similar and related offenses the 6 forfeitures have been above average and apprehension after for-7 feiture has been nil. Should the court ignore these facts?

8 Perhaps through these proceedings our reviewing courts 9 can furnish the trial courts with a yardstick to determine the 10 amount of bail required to assure the presence at the time of 11 trial of the petitioners and others similarly charged. My only 12 hope is that their judgment on such calculated risks may be cor-13 rect.

14 I have ordered the transcript of the proceedings before 15 Judge Mathes filed as an exhibit in these proceedings, together 16 with the records of the court on the motions for reduction of bail 17 before him in the criminal case, and have admitted in evidence the 18 transcript of the proceedings in Healey et al. v. Boyle, No. 13361
19 to No. 13370. I have examined such proceedings and have consid-20 ered the same and am unable to conclude that the amount of bail, 21 fixed in each instance is either arbitrary or the result of an 22 abuse of discretion. I further find that such amounts as were 23 fixed are necessary to assure the presence of the petitioners in 24 the further proceedings in the criminal case and for no other pur-25 pose.

26 The procedure followed in these matters is that outlined 27 in the Rubenstein case (155 F. (2d) 1002). The record herein in-28 dicates that such procedure is cumbersome and unnecessarily delays 29 the ultimate disposition of matters that are entitled to expedi-
30 tious action by the courts.

31 I make these comments not in criticism of the present 32 method but rather as an invitation to our reviewing courts to

1 provide a more expeditious procedure. With my ruling in this case 2 five district judges have passed on the reasonableness of the 3 amount of bail. If we are in error petitioners have had to 4 languish in jail to meet the requirements of legal formalism.

5  The petition for writ of habeas corpus in each matter is 6 hereby denied and the petition in each instance is hereby dis-7 missed.

8 The government is ordered to submit forthwith proposed 9 order of dismissal of said petitions.

22 The above-entitled matters came on regularly for hearing on 23 September 6, 1951, before the Honorable Ben Harrison, Judge presid-24 ing, on Orders to Show Cause Why Writs of Habeas Corpus should not 25 be granted, the petitioner Philip Marshall Connelly being represent-26 ed by his attorneys, Ben Margolis, Esq., and Daniel G. Marshall, 27 Esq. and the remaining petitioners by their attorneys Margolis and 28 McTernan, Esqs., by Ben Margolis, Esq., and the respondent, James 29 J. Boyle, being represented by his counsel, Ernest A. Tolin, United 30 States Attorney for the Southern District of California, and Ray H.
31 Kinnison, Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District 32 of California, and A. L. Wirin, Esq., appearing as amicus curiae; the 1 Court having ordered upon the stipulation of the attorneys for the 2 respective parties that the petitions for writs of habeas corpus 3 be consolidated and treated as a joint petition for writ of habeas 4 corpus; and the Court having read the petitions for Writs of Habeas 5 Corpus on file, the Return thereto filed by the respondent to said 6 petitions for Writs of Habeas Corpus herein; and the Court finding 7 that on July 31, 1951, and prior to the hearing herein, a True Bill 8 of indictment was returned in this Court before Judge James M.

9 Carter, by the Grand Jury for the Southern District of California, 10 charging the petitioners and others with conspiracy to commit of-11 fenses against the United States prohibited by Section 2 of the 12 Smith Act, 54 Stat. 671, 18 U.S.C. (1946 ed.) 10, and 18 U.S.C.
13 (1948 ed.) 2385, and said indictment having been ordered filed 14 under Case No. 21883-CD, and on recommendation of said Grand Jury, 15 Judge James M. Carter then set bail for the petitioner William 16 Schneiderman in the amount of $100,000 and in the amount of $75,000 17 for the remaining petitioners, and thereafter, on the 7th day of 18 August, 1951, petitioners filed with said Judge James M. Carter a 19 motion to reduce the amount of bail; that the said Judge James M.
20 Carter on August 29, 1951 disqualified himself from any further 21 proceedings in the prosecution of the petitioners herein including 22 proceedings on bail; that the said proceedings were then assigned 23 by Chief Judge Paul J. McCormick to Judge William C. Mathes and the 24 aforesaid motions to reduce bail came on for hearing before the said 25 Judge William C. Mathes, and following a full hearing on said motions 26 Judge William C. Mathes on August 30, 1951 did reduce the amount of 27 bail for each of the petitioners to $50,000, and the Court having 28 taken testimony on the petition herein and having heard arguments, 29 and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and it appearing 30 to the satisfaction of the Court, and the Court finding for the 31 reasons aforesaid that the relief prayed for in the aforesaid peti-32 tions for Writs of Habeas Corpus should not be granted, that the

1 orders to show cause why the petitions for writ of habeas corpus
2 should not be granted should be discharged, and that said Petitions 3 for Writs of Habeas Corpus should be denied, and said cause having 4 been submitted to the Court for decision;

5 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the aforesaid
6 Petitions for Writs of Habeas Corpus heretofore filed in the above
